

Tale at the Shores of Palamós

Architectural Poetry Through Photography

Tornado Azul, 2017, 11 cm x 8,8 cm

Wavy Sunset, 2017, 11 cm x 8,8 cm

The sea cannot be contained, only when we dare to put a frame on it...
-- Suffo Moncloa

Paris, Dec 5, 2023 --- Spanish photographer Suffo Moncloa collaborates with emerging architect Andrea Tusell Falcó, both from Spain, to present "Tale at the Shores of Palamós." on suffomoncloa.shop on at 12PM GMT+1 on Dec 7, Thursday. This imaginative exploration unfolds through a series of eight evocative Polaroid prints, envisioning a state-of-the-art Head Office and Shops nestled in Palamós' Old Port. Noteworthy is that both series, already created, find a new narrative as this collaboration places them in a new and captivating scenario. Additionally, these series are featured in Moncloa's first photobook, "Evidences."

Embark on a visual odyssey capturing the essence of Palamós' heritage and the profound connection between locals and Gamba Roja. Moncloa's expertise, showcased through light experimentation in Paris, breathes life into the project, bringing a unique narrative to the existing series, now available for acquisition, offering a distinctive and immersive visual experience. Beyond a mere examination of recent events, the project stands as a tribute to the enduring spirit of those who shaped this area into a thriving hub for work and life. Join us on a journey to preserve the past while crafting a modern and vibrant future for the Fishermen's Brotherland.

Series Breakdown:

Blue Series: "Tornados Azuls," "Blue Thorns," "Naif," and "When The Blue is Playing."

Red Series: "Red Fuji" and "Wavy Sunset."

All prints are available for individual purchase, and they can also be acquired as part of a series, offering a distinctive visual experience.

For media inquiries, high-resolution images, or to schedule an interview with Suffo Moncloa and Andrea Tusell i Falcó, please contact:

Ying : suffostudio@gmail.com

#suffomoncloa @suffomoncloa @andreatusellfalco

SUFFO MONCLOA

Suffo Moncloa, a Madrid native currently residing between Paris and Spain, has carved a niche in photography, seamlessly spanning fashion, beauty, and fine art. A dedicated practitioner of analogue photography and photo lab printing, Suffo is a passionate curator of beauty in the everyday mundane. With over 20 years of dedicated practice, he has finely honed his photographic style and language. Describing himself as an ardent seeker of beauty, Suffo employs photography to craft serene and meditative spaces for both himself and viewers. His extensive clientele includes prestigious names such as Chanel, Hermes, Louis Vuitton, and more.

Andrea Tusell Falcó, a Barcelona-born architect, nurtured her passion for architecture from a young age, exploring homes of acquaintances and sketching her future visions. A graduate of the School of Architecture in Barcelona, her experiences in Paris, Brazil, and Barcelona enriched her understanding of multidisciplinary research on territorial and urban transformation. Recognized as Young Talent 2023, shortlisted for the EUMiesAwards, Andrea seamlessly integrates diverse experiences into her dynamic and strategic approach to architecture.

Moncloa's Photobooks:

Suffo Moncloa has published "Evidences 2017" and "Walk To The Moon 2022."